Robert Collins, Chef

Chef Robert Collins is President and Executive Chef of the Youthage Culinary Specialist nonprofit school that he founded in 2016 in Mundelein. A retired Navy Veteran, a former owner of Rob's Delight Catering, Inc, and a graduate of Robert Morris University, Chef Robert has 29 years of Food Service experience. After witnessing the direct link between diet, how it affects one's health and diabetes management, he knew it was his calling to help the youths in his community learn the importance of healthy ingredients and how to cook them! The vision was to provide students of all ages and abilities the opportunity for hands-on training by culinary experts. Creating a fun, yet unique culinary experience with an emphasis on educating children on nutrition, culinary techniques, and youth and career development, students have the opportunity to build leadership skills, learn organizational concepts, and begin creating the framework for making healthier lifestyle choices.
